African Children's Mission Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

BIRMINGHAM, AL – The Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA) announced today the accreditation of African Children's Mission of Birmingham, AL.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fund-raising.

African Children's Mission joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 35 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is accredited by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

"We are pleased to include in our membership a ministry committed to reaching out to children in destitute circumstances," said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 1996, African Children's Mission (www.africanchildrensmision.org) is an interdenominational Christian mission organization that is funded by churches, groups, and individuals in the US and East Africa. The mission operates children's ministries in Kenya and Uganda, reaching out both physically and with the gospel of Jesus Christ, to enable the children to grow and develop in a secure environment.

To learn more about African Children's Mission and their stewardship opportunities, visit ServantMatch™, ECFA's program that matches God's servants with the stewardship options of ECFA members based on ministry sectors and categories. It is ECFA's newest online feature that allows you to quickly and easily find giving opportunities.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides accreditation to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance.
